

This is a search interface, It allows users to quickly find a specific location instead of manually navigating the map.

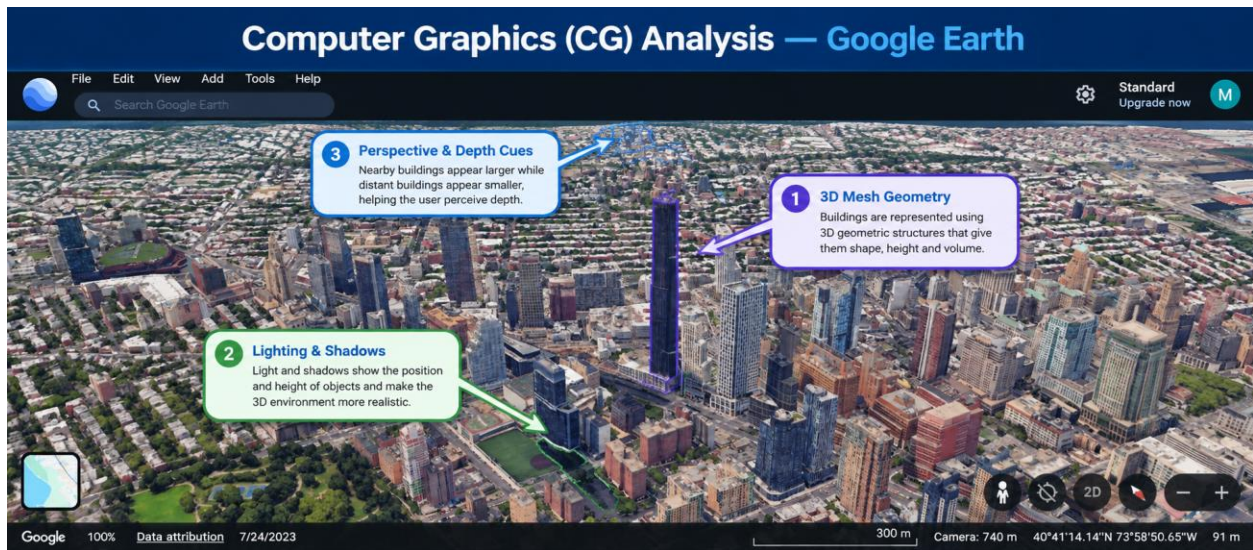

This interface called a zoom control; it allows users to move closer or farther from the 3D environment and control their viewing distance , + ve -> this sign increase a zoom; - ve sign decrease a zoom.

It is a 3D view controller; let the users switch to a 3D view of the map for a more immersive experience

COMPUTER GRAPHICS

1 – 3D Mesh geometry

Buildings are represented using 3D geometric structures that gives them shape, height and volume .

2-Lighting & Shadows

Light and shadows the position and height of objects and make the 3D environment more realistic.

3- Perspective & Depth Cues

Nearby building appears larger while distant building appear smaller, helping the user percieve depth.